WE DEDICATE.....

As seniors we are preparing to leave our world of college to enter a society where each of us must establish himself as a responsible human being. We look back now and remember those who have patiently guided us through these past four years, helping us prepare to meet this challenge and accomplish our objectives. We know we will carry with us always the vivid memory of a man we all admire and respect, a man who has not only been a teacher and advisor but also a trusted friend. In the classroom he has been the champion of thought, willing to listen to and evaluate our ideas and to strengthen our understanding of life and its problems. He has taught us the value of knowledge and good judgment, the importance of common sense, and, above all, the understanding of one another that is so necessary in this modern world. Through stimulating discussions with him we have learned to think, to employ our knowledge. Under his careful guidance we have grown and matured intellectually to open our eyes on a world of opportunity. Realizing his interest and sincerity we have often turned to him for thoughtful counsel in times of trouble and indecision. His knowledge and friendly manner never have been restricted to the classroom. Wherever one seeks him out an inner dignity and self-respect shine through the informality of easy conversation. With humility and sincerest appreciation, we want to say thank you for the many things he has done for us, individually and as the Class of 1957. It is with fondness and deep respect that we dedicate our yearbook to MR. JOHN W. DAVIS.

Mr. John W. Davis

To the Class of 1957:

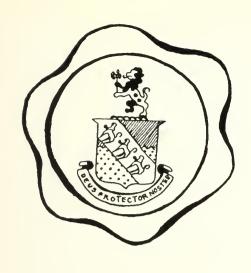

For more than three quarters of a century the members of the graduating classes included in the Emerson alumni have demonstrated the validity of the Emerson ideals of education in their character and personality, as well as in service to their community and chosen profession.

Through alumni support and through alumni service as corporators, trustees, faculty, and administrators, the vitality of the Emerson educational mission has been maintained while being expanded and adjusted to the needs of our changing society.

It is my privilege to welcome you as an alumni, with all the rights and responsibilities of that status. I also extend the congratulations of the faculty, administration, and student body.

We shall miss you on campus, but confidently expect to be increasingly proud of you and your achievements in the years to come.

> Sincerely yours, - Duster, Mikinley. President

COUNSELOR FOR WOMEN

Mrs. Ruth Southwick Maxfield has served as counselor for women since the position was created five years ago, but long before she had been, and still is, a friend to all Emerson students. Through our four years she has been a patient and understanding advisor. The graduating class of 1957 would like to extend its deep and sincere thanks to Mrs. Maxfield in appreciation of the help she has given the members of this class during the past four years.

COUNSELOR FOR MEN

Mr. John Howard Ahlin joined the Emerson faculty on a full-time basis just this year as an instructor in Social Sciences. The fact that Mr. Ahlin has been counselor for men for only a little more than a year has made his accomplishment one of greater significance. A friend to all, he has quickly understood the problems of the student body and has been able to cope with all of these problems without prejudice and with an open mind. The class of 1957 would like to say "Thank you, Mr. Ahlin, for help when it was needed most."

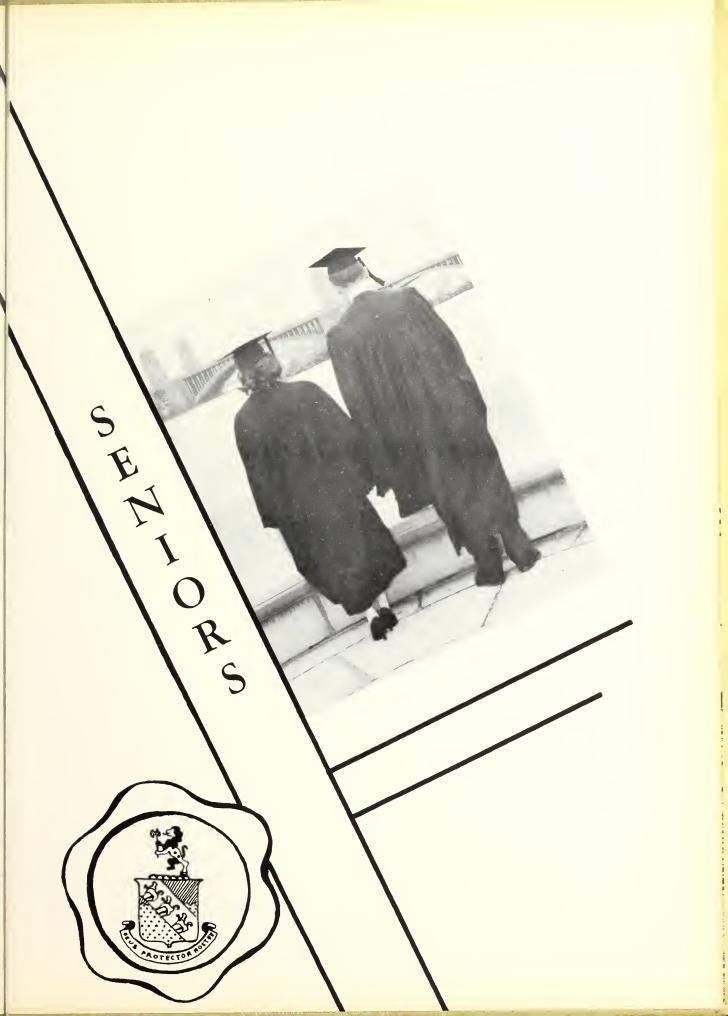

"I really can't afford it this week, Mary . . . "

"Come back at four and I'll have it ready . . . "

Alma Mater

O' Alma Mater, dear, thy name we praise, Our voices love-inspired to thee we raise, And we will cherish thee in days to come, And think with loving hearts of Emerson. Yours is the highest art, a shining goal, You are the star of each and every soul, And all thy Children's hearts they beat as one. We love thee Alma Mater, Emerson. And all thy Children's hearts they beat as one. We love thee Alma Mater, Emerson.

Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities: Robert Cathcart, Theresa Romano, Robert Bergeron, Morton Glovin, Vincent Bevilacqua

Class Officers. Marge, Dick, Ken and George

The Class of 1958 returned this year, upperclassmen at last! Beginning far in advance, the class planned enthusiastically for the Junior Prom. The excitement had a snowball effect, building to the crowning of the Prom Queen, chosen by the Student Body, as the happy climax of the biggest social event of the year. Held at the Sherry-Biltmore, March 9th, this Junior Prom is one we will long remember for its gaiety and splendor.

Officers:

President Richard Hamilton
Vice-President Kenneth Desmarais
Secretary Marge Whiting
Treasurer George Wildey

With a gleam in their eyes the Sophomores began this year with the hazing of the new Emersonians. According to all reports they outdid themselves on the night of September 28th, the traditional "Hell Night." This spirit is outstanding with the Sophomores and they are to be commended for their avid interest in each and every activity at Emerson. This year's officers of the Class of 1959 were:

President Harry Morgan
Vice-President David Greenberg
Secretary Mary Connors
Treasurer Marjorie Graham

Class Officers: Marge, Harry, and Mary

On the 20th of September, 1956, many eager Freshmen started through the Emerson maze of schedules and classrooms. These Freshmen, who are to be the Class of 1960, were appropriately initiated into the Emerson family on Friday evening, September 28th, when they took part in the traditional "Hell Night" which followed a three day ordeal of hazing. This class of 1960 is filled with enthusiasm and good-will, and the Class of 1957 sincerely hopes this spirit will remain with them throughout their four years of college life. They chose as their leaders:

President Barry Mandel Vice-President Paul Austin Nancy Perko Secretary Treasurer Cynthia Whalen

CLASS PROPHECY

Good evening, ladies and gentlemen. This is Ken Saunders bringing you that widely acclaimed television program, "This Didn't Have To Be Your Life". Tonight we have as our guests the famous class of 1957, who five years ago graduated from Emerson College and went out into the world to make a name for themselves. I'm sure that as the names are called off you'll recognize each as an outstanding personality. Are you ready, Class of '57? "This Didn't Have To Be Your Life."

The entertainment field has claimed many of these Emersonians' lives. For instance, Bob Bergeron has replaced Ed Sullivan as M.C. on Toast of the Town. Working for the same network is Tom Carroll. Rumor has it he's about to step into Bill Paley's shoes as Chairman of the Board at C.B.S. On the local level. Dick Keefe is the jazz authority currently being featured on WXHR. Other Emersonians with responsible positions in radio are Cindy Crane and Jim Colby. Cindy has replaced Leona on the Bob and Ray Show while Jim takes the part of Tonto on the Lone Ranger series. Mort Dubitsky is a young man on his way up the ladder at C.B.S. (washing windows at Cohen's Butcher Shop). Bob Loveling on the international scene is doing a fine job for Radio Moscow.

Fame has also been gained in the business world. Bob Cathcart is the new president of the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company. Chuck Albert is the counter manager for Brunch Limited while Charlie McGilvray is successfully selling yoyos to gullible college students. In business for himself is Joe Famolare, who is the most popular shoeshine boy on Broadway. Also operating independently is Dick Russell who manufactures "Do it Yourself Yearbooks." Frank Murphy is the successful designer of the new all purpose shillelagh.

In the literary field we find Dick Allen as the leading columnist for the Midtown Journal. Barbara Arey's autobiography, I Was a Teenage Test Pilot, recently broke into the best seller list. Helen Tietlebaum is running a series of articles in a leading newspaper on "how to get the most out of old coffee grounds." Famous in the world of journalism is Alex Wolfson who has been offered a permanent position as drama critic for the Berkeley Beacon. Eddie Blotner, renowned psychologist, has been named successor to Dr. Roback on the strength of his book, Blotner-iana. Also making headlines in the literary world is Liz Findlen with her masterpiece, My Life In The Borscht Mines. I know you'll all be glad to hear that Sheila Ward finally won her court case which entitles her to full rights as the actual author of Portrait Of The Artist As A Young Man.

In New York and Hollywood the names in lights are mostly Emersonians. Mort Kaplan was the new star on Broadway last night when little Sheba came back. Pam Merrill is the star of the musical comedy version of Cat On A Hot Tin Roof. Adrienne Cohen is replacing Carroll Baker in the road company production of Baby Doll while Bob Handy has landed the coveted roll of Jeeter Lester in the remake of Tobacco Road. Priscilla Lowell is competing with Zazu Pitts for the lead in Lili. Joan Cappel, comedy star of stage, screen, and radio, is touring the country as Hamlet, while Lora Chase is the successful new choreographer at Toots Shor's. Nancy Newman has achieved her ambition as a director—of traffic at Hollywood and Vine.

In the field of education, Dr. Russell Blood plans to return to Emerson as head of the new "How to Get a Laugh" department. Joan Allen is an up and coming speech therapist for the natives in the Belgian Congo, while Norma Crocker is the only American to successfully slip through the Iron Curtain as speech therapist for Russians with a lateral S. Bill Bellissimo is teaching driver education for the city of Boston. Emminent sports authority, Richard Barba, is director of athletics at Radcliffe. Pat Roberts is instrumental in giving audiometric tests to hard-of-hearing Hungarians. It is rumored that Don Perkins is going for his Ph. D. in phychology at Burdett.

In the music world Dick Libertini is the successful harpsichord player at the Gardner Museum, while Bob Riley is the assistant conductor of the New York Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra. Elaine Zimmerman is singing bass lead at the Met. Kay Wishengrad was recently crowned first polka queen on the Lawrence Welk show.

On the political scene Emersonians have front page news. Vinnie Bevilacqua has just completed a successful three week filibuster in Washington in the prevention of the use of the yellow bellied sap sucker for experimental purposes. Mort Glovin has been instrumental in setting up student governments all over the United States and Canada, while Theresa Romano is taking a nationwide poll to discover how many people prefer personalized stationery. Mimi Dalapas has won the distinction of being the only lady admiral in the United States Navy.

In the fashion world Emerson graduates shine again with Susan Siegel as a successful model of women's ready-to-wear space suits, and Carole Krinzman recently being voted one of the ten best dressed women in Outer Mongolia.

In unusual achievements Ron Allard is the only man to ever debate both sides against the middle and win both arguments. Jim Arena was the first man to successfully reach the moon. A most fascinating discovery was made concerning one of the Emersonians; John Sylvester really is Santa Claus!

DEPARTMENTS

Don't "wow" it.

You're on the air.

Mr. Charles Dudley, Arthur Hull Hayes, President of C. B. S., Dr. S. Justus McKinley.

This year was a big one for the Broadcasting Department. Together with an increase in staff, the department has seen a sizeable improvement in technical facilities to further the educational advantages of the department. The technical facilities of WERS have been improved to provide what might prove to be the finest radio facilities in New England. Of particular significance is the new WERS "live" production studio which represents a combination of aesthetic design and functional efficiency calculated to provide the ideal atmosphere for the broadcasting of live music programs.

Our closed-circuit station, WECB, has developed an increased awareness of the importance of closed-circuit operation in the extending of the opportunity for practi-

Our closed-circuit station, WECB, has developed an increased awareness of the importance of closed-circuit operation in the extending of the opportunity for practical broadcast participation and in the offering of a worthwhile program service which accommodates the desires of the Emerson College community.

Still further progress in the Broadcasting department is reflected in the increased quality and scope of the television activity. Both in formal classroom training and in the extra-curricular work, the results were most gratifying. The television workshop has been responsible for several fine productions.

As I was saying . . . (Anniversary Waltz)

Again, as in years past, the Drama Workshop of Emerson provided its audiences with an enjoyable and varied selection of outstanding plays. The Drama Department is fortunate to have an extraordinarily fine roster of instructors headed by Mrs. Gertrude Binley Kay. The season opened with two works, "Anniversary Waltz" and "Bus Stop", both presented in arena style, the latter having also received accolades during the summer season at Martha's Vineyard. Our annual Founder's Day Shakespearian production "Twelfth Night" was especially noteworthy for its excellent costumes and scenery designed by Miss Anne de Coursey. "The Great Divide", an experiment in melodramatic techniques, was followed by a concise history of the theater given through the Sophomore production "Ten by Two". "Someone Waiting" and "Playwrites' Workshop", which incorporated original student creations, brought us to the high point of the year: our spectacular musical "Guys and Dolls" given at New England Mutual Hall under the superb direction of Mr. Leo Nickole. "There Shall Be No Night", the Commencement play, rounded off a full and exciting year.

Finale scene from "Peter Pan"

This year was a busy and prosperous one for the Speech Department. Through the course of the year the Debate Team, under the spirited guidance of Dr. Coleman C. Bender and Mr. Haig Der Marderosian enjoyed guidance of Dr. Coleman C. Bender and Mr. Haig Der Marderosian enjoyed a successful season when they met M.I.T., Boston University, Brandeis, Rutgers, Boston College, Dartmouth, and Harvard among other schools. In the spring, they plan to visit the University of Maine, University of New York and possibly West Point.

In February, Mrs. Frances LaShoto's Expressive Action Class gave a colorful and highly enjoyable presentation of Peter Pan. Under the direction of Mrs. Frances LaShoto and Mrs. June Mitchell many fine dramatic readings were presented at various convocations during the year.

Mrs. June Mitchell and her Choric Speech Choir have had a highly successful year; in fact, so successful that they are booked now through 1958! They entertained at three convocations and twelve different clubs.

They entertained at three convocations and twelve different clubs.

Vinnie, our champion, and our up-and-coming debaters.

The student Speech Therapists, Miss Catherine Perry, Director, and Mrs. Adams.

Student therapists are gaining invaluable experience at the Samuel D. Robbins Speech and Hearing Clinic. The inauguration this year of a program for young cerebral palsied adults, made possible by a grant from the State Department of Vocational Rehabilitation, is an example of the progress the Clinic has been making continually since it was established three years ago. This new program is under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Rubin, a 1955 graduate of Emerson College. A large monetary gift to the Clinic is being used to purchase auditory equipment for use with the enlarged group of hard-of-hearing patients. To cite another example of the Clinic's advancement under Miss Catherine Perry's direction, the case load has increased from 18 patients when the Clinic opened to 150 patients this year. The combined experience and interest demonstrated by Miss Enid Lofchie and Mr. Thomas Houchin has been more than dutiful in these important accomplishments.

Testing hearing ability is an important part of speech therapy procedure.

CLASS WILL

We, the members of the Senior Class of Emerson College in the city of Boston, County of Suffolk, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, do ordain and establish this to be our last will and testament. Having spent all our pennies that we might receive our degree, signed by the proper authorities, we leave the following items to our successors. Use them wisely.

Chuck Albert gives the Evolution of Expression back to Charles Wesley Emerson.

Ron Allard leaves to Andy Guthrie his power to maintain silence when the occasion demands.

Joan Allen leaves to Bonnie Glovin the overdue file and library notices.

Dick Allen leaves his tambourine to Jim Noel.

Barbara Arey leaves her ability to remain inconspicuous to Dick Fuchs.

Jim Arena leaves his amazing ability to pass Dr. Pierce's courses without cracking a book to all Western Civilization students.

Dick Barba leaves . . . finally. Bill Bellissimo leaves WERS for WRCA and big-time radio.

Bob Bergeron leaves "Hi Fi Heaven" and the "Tower of London" to next year's proctors at 303 Berkeley.

Vin Bevilacqua leaves his "shoe" sneakers to Dick Hamilton to be worn at Student Government meetings.

Russ Blood leaves a referee's whistle and a pair of elevator shoes to Hap LeClair.

Ed Blotner leaves his Shearing records to WECB.

Joan Cappel leaves her ability to remain slender while constantly eating french fries, frappes, and spaghetti to all endomorphs.

Tom Carroll leaves his polka-dot shirt and lace tie to John Locke to use in his western movies. Bob Cathcart leaves next year's Senior class president one full day each week for class meetings.

Lora Chase leaves her worn out ballet slippers to be used by future "Guys and Dolls"

Adrienne Cohen leaves for Georgia with her Southern accent unimpaired. Jim Colby leaves his little black book to be sold at the next Kappa Auction.

Cindy Crane leaves her two pony tails to any short-bobbed lassies. Norma Crocker leaves her two hard-boiled eggs to Nancy Holden. Mimi Dalapas leaves for Maryland and an Annapolis wedding.

Mort Dubitsky leaves to Meredith O'Gorman his rendition of "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling" in Hebrew.

Joe Famolare just wants to leave.

Liz Findlen leaves Shirley Shay her "Glass Menagerie" to play with.

Mort Glovin leaves a flattened head to the President of Student Government. Bob Handy leaves - Charles to John Ahearn.

Mort Kaplan leaves his sarcastic remarks to any inhibited person, if one can be found at Emerson.

Dick Keefe leaves to Mitch Sevajian all of his unused B & M commuter tickets. Carole Krinzman leaves her red convertible and Florida tan to Judi Simmons.

Dick Libertini leaves for Greenwich Village

Bob Loveling leaves his sergeant stripes to Dick Hamilton. Priscilla Lowell leaves locker 14 solely to Ray and Charlie.

Pam Merrill leaves her multi-colored fingernail polish to the paint and scenery department.

Nancy Newman leaves the Newman Club to perpetuate her name. Don Perkins gives Hamlet, Romeo, and Feste back to Sir Lawrence Olivier.

Bob Riley leaves his sweatshirt to Emerson's Hall of Fame.

Pat Roberts leaves all of her unfinished business connected with Emerson to Ruth Silverman. Theresa Romano leaves her ability to remain calm under fire to future presidents of Inter-Faith.

Ken Saunders leaves the AA-OO-GAH horn on his car to Bernie Gregoire.

Sue Siegel leaves her fellow Siegels to continue the confusion.

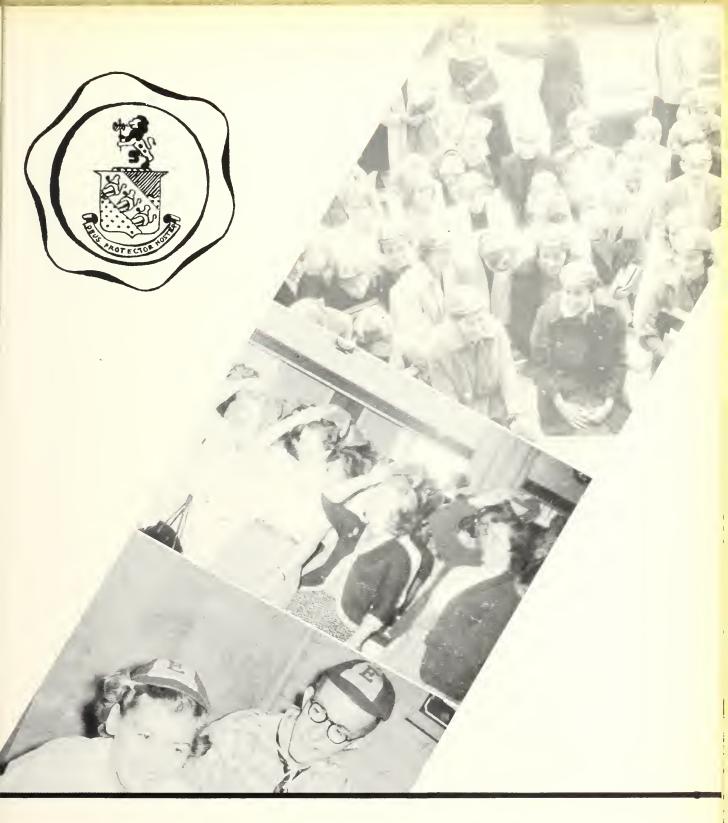

John Sylvester leaves his suaveness in handling certain affairs to Linc Stulick. Helen Teitelbaum leaves to Emerson her cast parties, to be distributed evenly Sheila Ward leaves her 2,000 lab hours to be divided among the freshmen.

Kay Wishengrad leaves for Kukamonga to study the native dancers.

Alex Wolfson leaves to take over Brooks Atkinson's job as America's dean of drama critics.

Elaine Zimmerman leaves her pleasant voice to future switchboard operators.

Draun, signed and delivered this first day of February in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred and fift, seven, within the confines of Emerson College in Boston, Commonwealth of Massachuseus.

ACTIVITIES

Our home and our "Mother", Mrs. Edward Walsh

Kappa Gamma Chi has the distinction of being the oldest independent sorority in existence, having been founded in 1902.

Being the social sorority at Emerson, the girls always have a number of activities on their "Kappa Kalender." Some of these activities include the annual Faculty Auction, the Spaghetti Throw, and a Christmas party held at the Kappa house. One of the highlights of the year was The Underwater Fantasy, a semi-formal dance, which Kappa held in conjunction with their brother fraternity, Alpha Pi Theta. Among the festivities which concluded the school year were the May weekend and the Parents' weekend.

The aim of Kappa Gamma Chi is ideal womanhood based on love, loyalty, trust, and harmony.

PHI MU GAMMA

The Alpha Chapter of Phi Mu Gamma was founded at Emerson College in 1921. Phi Mu Gamma is a national speech arts sorority standing for the intelligent advancement of the arts. Beginning the season with the pledging of new members, the girls entertained their guests with a novel "delicatessen" style dinner at the home of Nancy Newman. The activities for second semester were highlighted by a musical melodrama, "Love Rides The Rails," which the Phi Mu girls produced in conjunction with their brother fraternity, Phi Alpha Tau. The success of its two performances was well worth the weeks of rehearsing.

Making plans for the year ahead

Emerson College is the home of Alpha Chapter of Zeta Phi Eta, America's first professional Speech Arts fraternity for women. Since the founding of the Alpha Chapter in 1908, Zeta has strived to keep its members closely in touch with the current events of the fields they plan to enter.

Hoos, Zeta has strived to keep its members closely in touch with the current events of the fields they plan to enter.

Each year as a fund-raising project, the members sponsor a "Work Week". During this period, a Zeta girl will do any type of odd job from washing your car to washing your baby. This phenomenally successful project has been recognized by the thirty-five national chapters of Zeta.

Other events looked forward to by all Emersonians are the Zeta Christmas party for the Speech Therapy Clinic, its musical productions staged in collaboration with Rho Delta Omega, and this year especially, its Square Dance.

PAN HELLENIC COUNCIL

J. Novick, P. Lowell, Miss Lofchie, P. Roberts, B. Regan, C. Crane. The Pan Hellenic Council coordinates the activities of the three sororities on campus. Its chief function is to initiate the rushing season with a Tea twice yearly. The Council has as its advisor Miss Enid Lofchie.

The chief aim of the Intra-Fraternity Council is to establish and maintain standards and better relations among the fraternal organizations at Emerson College. The Council is composed of the president of each fraternity.

ALPHA PI THETA

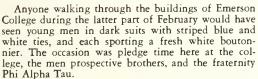

Alpha Pi Theta is a professional speech arts fraternity at Emerson College. It was organized in 1945 to promote the use of speech and dramatic training in general education, to work for the advance of the standards of professional speech and dramatics, and to provide the benefits of fraternal cooperation for the students of Emerson College who are interested in a sincere and honest effort to improve themselves and their college. The members of the fraternity are drawn from all departments of the school to provide a well-rounded background in the organization. During the past year, Alpha Pi Theta has been engaged in many school and social functions independently and in cooperation with the other fraternities and sororities. One of the highlights of this year was the very successful Theta-Kappa Dance held in January in the Theater. Dick Richards and his orchestra accompanied the dancing couples through an evening of fun and entertainment.

President Vice-President Corresponding Secretary Recording Secretary Treasurer Edward Blotner Charles Durand Richard Johnson William Lewis Donald Mills

It was back in the year 1902 at Emerson College that this national fraternity was first organized. Its aims then and now are still for the development and promotion of the speech arts in all fields and professions.

Phi Alpha Tau worked for many years toward the development of a speech award which could be given to people in whose fields speech was an integral part. In the year 1953 this annual national speech arts award became a reality in the "Joseph E. Connor Award". The late Brother Connor was for many years chairman of the Emerson College speech department and was instrumental in nationalizing and spreading the doctrine of the fraternity throughout many institutions of higher learning in the United States. To date the "Joseph E. Connor Award" has been presented to Edward R. Murrow, Bill Cunningham, Joseph Welch, and Eliot Norton, all men who utilize speech in the highest.

RHO DELTA OMEGA

Miss Beverly Foley, Rho Delta's Dream Girl

Rho Delta Omega had one of their most successful years since the establishment of the fraternity in 1948. RDO's Dream Girl Ball was held in October and provided a very pleasant opening to Emerson's social season for this year. Miss Beverly Foley, member of the Sophomore class, was honored by the fraternity in being chosen "Dream Girl of 1957." In sports Rho Delta was victorious in the Intra-Fraternity Football League, winning two games and losing none. The Smoker was held in February and a good time was had by both the active members and the many alumni who returned to Emerson for this annual event. In March the Alumni Council was formed and plans for the Tenth Reunion got underway. Other events during the year included a Square Dance with Zeta and participation in the Intra-Fraternity Softball League.
